

Example: Botswana - safari in Okavango Delta and visit to Victoria Falls

6 days, 3 nights in Okavango Delta and a brief visit to Victoria Falls. You start in Maun in the southern part of the delta boarding a small aircraft that will take you to the lodge and three nights in Okavango, one of the most beautiful wonders of the world. From there you go by small aircraft to Kasane by the border to Zimbabwe. From there you will be transported by road to Victoria Falls where you spend 2 nights. The example is priced for 2 persons for the African winter season 2017/Northern hemisphere summer season.

Day 1: to Maun and on to Okavango Delta. Getting off your plane at Maun in Botswana a representative for the lodge will meet you and take you to the airstrip for the small aircraft that will take you to the lodge.

Safari lodge in Okavango Delta for 3 nights, meals and activities included.

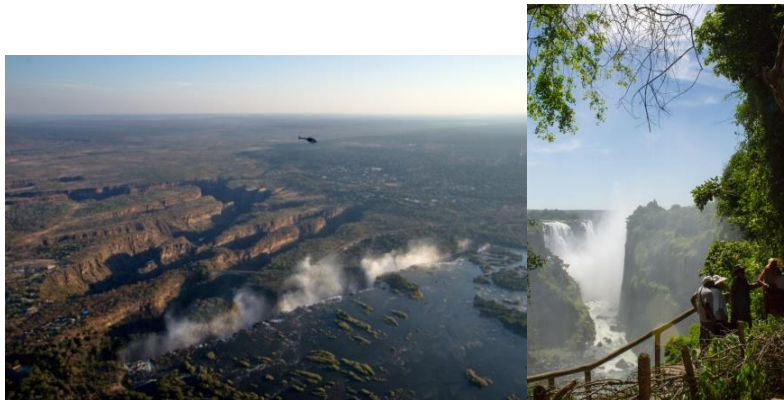

Day 2 and 3: Safari in the Okavango, by boat, mokoro canoe and maybe also on foot.

Day 4: from Okavango to Victoria Falls. You travel by small aircraft to Kasane where you are met by your transfer guide who will drive you through the Zimbabwe border post and on to Victoria Falls. 2 nights at a hotel in the little town of Victoria Falls, breakfast included.

Victoria Falls is mostly about the falls. This can be viewed on foot and is most spectacular from the Zimbabwean side. You can walk down to the park surrounding the falls, there is a fee to get in. You might consider bringing a raincoat for the spray, or buy a local one.

You can continue walking, cross the bridge over the gorge, this is also where the border post between Zimbabwe and Zambia is located, bring your passport. A bit further on you can enter the viewing area for the falls on the Zambian side. Various more or less daring activities are on offer in the vicinity of the falls: bungi jumps, flying slides/ zip lines in variations, kanooing, white water rafting, horse back riding, to mention some.

Dag 5: in Victoria Falls : The morning and midday is at your own disposal for meandering and admiring the falls. Into the afternoon you will be collected by a driver whom will take you to a river boat for a cruise on the mighty Zambezi River. Drinks and snacks are served on board. The tour ends around sunset-time. Back on the dock your driver waits and will return you to the hotel. This excursion is included.

Day 6: departure: After breakfast and checking out your driver will take you to the airport for your flight out.
