3 nights at safari bush lodge. Included during your stay is: meals, tea and coffee, two game drives per day in open safari vehicles. Conservation Fee to the Game Reserve not included.

Upon arrival you check in and have lunch. Shortly thereafter your first game drive starts. At the front of the vehicle sits a tracker, a game ranger is driving the car, sometimes they take a rifle along. The tracker and ranger follow tracks and signs to find big and small animals and they will explain to you and answer your questions about what you see. There will be a maximum of 8 or 9 persons per vehicle.

As dusk falls you stop for sun downers, you are asked before departure what you would like to drink. After enjoying the sunset, snacks and a drink the drive continues in the dark. The ranger is now using a strong spotlight to see and to catch the reflection of the eyes of the nocturnal animals. Everybody is wishing for a lion or another of the cats, you never know what will happen.

Into the evening, depending on what happens in the bush, you will return to the lodge for a lovely dinner.

Day 8 and 9 on safari: The days are happening more or less like this: They wake you up early; there is coffee and a rusk before the early morning game drive starts. You have to be in position when the animals start their day, the chances of good game viewing is best early morning and late afternoon/evening. After a few hours, depending on what happens, you will go back to the lodge for a scrumptious breakfast/brunch.

Midday you can rest and relax, read, enjoy the pool or check if something is happening at the waterhole. There is a light lunch and in the afternoon there is another game drive and new adventures waiting. The day is ended with another delicious dinner.
