

Example South Africa - Cape Town, Wine lands, Coast and Garden Route

10 days in Western Cape in South Africa. You start with a few days in Cape Town followed by some days of self-driving and exploring the Wine lands, the coast and the Garden Route. Your last stop is right on beautiful beaches. This is a perfect trip for a family with small children. The example is priced for 2017 for 2 adults and 2 children less than 12 years, the time of year is African Winter/Northern hemisphere summer.

Day 1, Cape Town: You arrive at Cape Town International and will be met at the airport by your transfer driver who will take you to your hotel. 4 nights in Cape Town, breakfasts included.

Day 2, 3 and 4 in Cape Town: These days are at your own disposal, no excursions are included. Things to do: Table Mountain on foot or by cable car, Robben Island by boat, sightseeing on the island and visit to the prison and Mandela's cell, city sightseeing on foot, by bicycle or the Hop on Hop off sightseeing buses, day trip to Cape of Good Hope, Township visit. Not to forget wonderful beaches and excellent shopping.

Day 5, Wine lands: You will have a rental delivered to the hotel and after breakfast you drive to the Stellenbosch wine region to check out the good life of wine tasting and great food. Overnight guesthouse/wine farm 1 night with breakfast included.

Day 6, the inland between Wine lands and Garden Route: You go eastwards to the charming town of Swellendam, with overnight at a guest house, breakfast included. Swellendam is an old town, and the The Drostdy – the seat of the administration during colonial times- is now a museum and well worth a visit.

Day 7, coast and Garden Route: You continue eastwards to the Garden Route and to Wilderness with its magnificent beaches. 3 nights at guesthouse by ocean and beaches. Breakfasts included.

Day 8 and 9 are at your own disposal for activities under and above water, or meandering the endless beaches. Or perhaps do an excursion to the famous Cango Caves north of George or to the lovely village of Knysna.

Day 10, After breakfast and check out you continue eastwards to Port Elizabeth. Drop off the vehicle at Port Elizabeth airport and check in for your onward flight.
